

Oneness

God is everywhere, there is nowhere I am alone.

God is all around and within, I am a statement of God.

The journey of life takes twists and turns,
we face dangers, we harbour fears,
we dream and imagine and all within God.

God knows the danger and the fear
but God's love breaks through reminding us that this is only one expression of life and in God is eternal life.

God's love is a shelter in the storm
and where we harbour fears God's love is our safe harbour.

Nothing, nothing in all creation
can separate us from the God who is love,
for we are one,
and all we know is from God
and all we have yet to discover is from God.
Our journeys never end for God never ends.

God is everywhere, there is nowhere I am alone.

God is all around and within, I am a statement of God.
